this work is a personal exploration of seven ancient sites as sacred heritage and the relation of each one to one of the seven major chakras in travelling to a sacred place one discovers the site s spiritual power within its actual setting each site is related to a specific chakra on the basis of the author s experience there and the symbolism and concept associated with the chakra each chapter begins with an original poem and ends with a guided meditation welcome to your book i can assure you that your copy is unique and original in fact it has been written with you in mind and has been specifically dedicated to you i am the nonphysical sentience of this planet simply put i am the planet earth i am the body and the soul of the planet you currently inhabit my sentience guides and enlivens all that surrounds the planet as well as all that is upon and within her my sentience animates the air you breathe the energy you burn and the water you drink my sentience the most aware advanced and attuned aspect of my being is that which directs these words although many believe in a sentient or feeling earth not all are attuned to her channeling offers a unique advantage in this respect because it allows the transmission of vibrations and impressions to be communicated as language today two priorities guide my sentience the first is to erase the perception of separation that seems to threaten the planet the second priority is to awaken and expand the collective consciousness it is my hope that you will find my message meaningful and that you will continue to develop an appreciation for who and what you are gaia this collection of accessible essays relates the stories of individual goddesses from around the world exploring their roles in the cultures from which they came their histories and status today and the controversies surrounding them goddesses in world culture brings readers the fascinating stories of close to 100 of the world's goddesses ranging from the immediately recognizable to the obscure these figures many of whom derive from ancient cultures and civilizations serve as points of departure for examining questions that go well beyond the role of women in religion and spirituality to include social organization environmental awareness historical developments and psychological archetypes each volume of this groundbreaking set is composed of 20-25 previously unpublished articles written by expert contributors from diverse disciplines volume one covers asia and africa volume two covers the eastern mediterranean and europe and volume three covers australia and the americas goddesses from cultures often overlooked in texts on religion such as those of the australian aborigines korea nepal and the caribbean are included here in addition the work offers new translations of ancient texts introduces little known folklore and suggests new approaches to contemporary religious practices gaia's gift the second of anne primavesi's explorations of human relationships with the earth asks that we complete the ideological revolution set in motion by copernicus and darwin concerning human importance they challenged the notion of our god given centrality within the universe and within earth's evolutionary history yet as our continuing exploitation of earth's resources and species demonstrates we remain wedded to the theological assumption that these are there for our sole use and benefit now james lovelock's scientific understanding of the existential reality of gaia's gift of life again raises the question of our proper place within the universe it turns us decisively towards an understanding of ourselves as dependent on rather than in control of the whole earth community during the last 30 years advanced architecture has consolidated an interactive and informational logic that differs from that of modernity and postmodernity this logic is threefold it is modulated through three coexisting protocols modes of action whose peaks of intensity occur in three different decades conformative protocols 1990-2000 distributive protocols 2000-2010 and expansive protocols 2010-2020 this work proposes a threefold cultural narrative whose interactive and informational logic differs from that of modernity and postmodernity it positions three different ethos by critically approaching the architectural side of a cultural mutation that has been affecting the western experimental areas of knowledge and practice since the end of the last century a transformative process constituted by a constellation of transdisciplinary manifestations accelerations turns shortcuts and clusterizations that by no means can be read under one single epistemological umbrella in this sense rather than approaching the practice of architecture focusing on its disciplinary inner specificity this book approaches the research of experimental architecture focusing on its extra disciplinary entanglements it argues that a vast multiplicity of fields of knowledge participates in a cultural endeavour modulated through three protocols forms of action that singularize three decades conformative protocols 1990 2000 distributive protocols 2000 2010 and expansive protocols 2010 2020 these three periods shouldn't be read as three hermetic and concatenated monades but as three different modulations of the same narrative that is as three overlapping and coexisting systems whose peaks of intensity occur in three different decades however the main purpose of this book is not limited to unveiling the ethos of these three conjugations it also aims at using this framework as a time field a narrative map that moves from the classificatory to the cartographical in order to vectorize the last 30 years of experimental architecture in this sense this book argues that this threefold set of protocols represents the progressive attempt to constitute critical interiorities looking for and produced through interactions that are increasingly more intimate and whose agents are increasingly more diverse a tendency oriented towards the consolidation of an intimacy between strangers that highly resonates with the cultural and technological landscape in which experimental architecture operates landscape is examines the implicit biases and received meanings of landscape following on from the previous publication is landscape which examined the plural and promiscuous identities of the landscape idea this companion volume reflects upon the diverse and multiple meanings of landscape as a discipline profession and medium this book is intended for academics researchers and students in landscape architecture and cognate disciplines chapters address various overlooked aspects of landscape that develop disturb and diversify received understandings of the field framed as an inquiry into the relationship of landscape to the forms of human subjectivity the book features contributions from leading voices who challenge the contemporary understandings of the field in relation to capital and class race and gender power and politics and more
